

How are schools protecting students and staff?

Weaving a basket

to protect against COVID-19

Think of school safety steps like a woven basket. No single step will stop the virus by itself. But if we combine different steps like we combine woven strands, we can re-open schools safely.

